7 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

8 UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

9 Plaintiff,

10 v.

11 PAUL VALENTINE CWALINA, II,

12 Defendant.

Case No.: 2:22-mj-00074-NJK

Stipulation to Extend Deadlines to Conduct Preliminary Hearing and File Indictment (Third Request)

14 IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED AND AGREED, by and between Robert M.
15 Draskovich, counsel for Defendant Paul Valentine Cwalina, II, Jason Frierson, United 16 States Attorney, and Jean N. Ripley, Assistant United States Attorney, counsel for the 17 United States of America, that the Court schedule the preliminary hearing in this case for no
18 earlier than forty-five (45) days from the date of this Stipulation. Specifically, the parties
19 request that the Court extend two deadlines: (1) that a preliminary hearing be conducted
20 within 14 days of a detained defendant's initial appearance, see Fed. R. Crim. P. 5.1(c); and
21 (2) that an information or indictment be filed within 30 days of a defendant's arrest. See 18
22 U.S.C. § 3161(b).

24 / / /

1 This stipulation is entered into for the following reasons:

2 1. Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure Rule 5.1(d) provides that, “[w]ith the
3 defendant’s consent and upon a showing of good cause—taking into account the public
4 interest in the prompt disposition of criminal cases—a magistrate judge may extend the time
5 limits [for preliminary hearings] one or more times.” Negotiations are ongoing and the 6 parties intend to pursue a potential resolution of this matter before defendant is formally
7 charged by indictment.

8 2. Defendant was recently transported back to Las Vegas, Nevada from Douglas
9 County Jail and Counsel requires additional time to discuss this case with his client.

10 3. This continuance is not sought for the purposes of delay, but to allow defense
11 counsel an opportunity to examine the merits of this case and the parties to pursue a
12 potential resolution.

13 4. Defendant has no opposition to the request for continuance.

14 5. This is the third request by the parties for an extension of the deadlines by 15 which to conduct the preliminary hearing and to file an indictment.

16 DATED this 22nd day of July, 2022.

17 Respectfully submitted,

18 THE DRASKOVICH LAW GROUP

Counsel for Defendant

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

PAUL VALENTINE CWALINA, II,

Defendant.

Case No.: 2:22-mj-00074-NJK

FINDINGS AND ORDER

Based on the pending Stipulation between the defense and the government, and good cause appearing therefore, the Court hereby finds that:

1. The parties have requested to continue the preliminary hearing in the above-captioned case to facilitate pre-indictment resolution. Defendant was recently transported back to Las Vegas, Nevada from Douglas County Jail. Counsel for Defendant will require additional time to discuss the case with his client prior to a preliminary hearing or indictment.

2. Both Counsel for Defendant and Counsel for the Government agree to the continuance.

3. Defendant has no opposition to the request for continuance.

4. The continuance is not sought for the purposes of delay, but to allow defense counsel an opportunity to examine the merits of this case and the parties to pursue a potential resolution.

5. For the foregoing reasons, there is good cause to continue the preliminary hearing and allow the parties to pursue a pre-indictment resolution of this case. The additional time requested by this stipulation is excludable in computing the time within

1 which indictment must be filed pursuant to the Speedy Trial Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3161(b), and
2 considering the factors under 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A) and (B)(i) and (iv).

3 THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the preliminary hearing in the 4 above-captioned matter for defendant Paul Valentine Cwalina, II, previously scheduled for
5 August 2, 2022, at 4:00 p.m., be vacated and continued to September 14, 2022, at 4:00 p.m.

7 DATED this 22nd day of July, 2022.
